Presidents Corner

By Beth Medeiros

Can you believe summer is officially over? Where does the time go? This means we need to start preparing the Guild for next year. I'm looking for a Nominating Committee to put together a slate of officers for 2019. The Committee consists of one current Board member and two people from the General membership. Donna Saunders has volunteered to be the Board member so we still need two general membership members. This is an important part of perpetuating the Guild into the future successfully. The slate of officers will be presented to you in October and voting will take place in November. All members are eligible to hold an Executive Board position (President, 1VP, 2VP, Secretary, and Treasurer). Please provide me your name if you are interested in being a part of this committee.

I would like to thank Nancy for handling the August meeting and hosting a wonderful class!

TQG GUILD 2018 MEETING DATES:

Sep 16	Oct 21
Nov 18	Dec 16

VA quilts by Cindy Clifton:

We received a total of 8 quilts at the August 19th meeting contributed by Marilyn Murray, Marlene Brudvig, and Akemi Simmons who gave 2 each and Donna Saunders and Karen Potts who donated 1 each. Thank you, ladies, so very much. They are beautiful!

This brings our total to 42 quilts on hand.

I still have several pieces of donated fabric that you can use for your VA quilts. Remember that you will need to wash each piece before using it in your quilt. I'll continue to bring these to the meetings until I run out.

REMINDER:

The September 10th Board Meeting will be at Elizabeth's Pizza, 1800 Skibo Road, at 6:30 pm.

BABY QUILTS by Mary Lou Dibbling

A big shout out to members who donated 28 quilts for the NICU this month. Marlene Brudvig-8; Donna Saunders-5; Mary Ann Hardee and MaryLou Dibbling-3; Beth Medeiros, Mary Dane and Debra Joas -2; Karen Potts, Pat Poulson, Akita Simmons-1 for a total of 28! Wonderful! We also received 4 Christmas stockings from Ann Jackson and in Memorium blankets from Ann Jackson, 8 and Mary Dane-5.

Marlene Brudvig and I delivered quilts to the NICU on Tuesday, August 21. There were 7 parents there who were very happy and grateful to choose the quilt for their baby. We delivered 9 boy plus a set of b/b quilts, 12 girls plus 2 sets of g/g quilts for a total of 27 quilts. Once again there were more girls than boys. Not the usual, but it happened.

We now have in storage 22 boys and 12 girls. Once again, we must ask for many more quilts again this month. We hope you will once again answer the call. Also remember to make Christmas stockings. I go to Stoney Point Recreation Center most every Tuesday between 1-4 pm and will be glad to help you.

SEW DAYS by Sandy Russell

Next sew day on September 29 at Stoney Point Rec Center is rather special and will be dedicated to the making of the Christmas stockings! There is plenty of room for sewing machines too so please come...Thanks!

Nancy Moore introduced Susan Edmundson, who presented our Program, which included her many beautiful samples of her work, which was the emphasis of her class Saturday, August 18th.

After her presentation, the guild broke for refreshments and shopping time from Susan's store.

Irene Grimes will have a paper-piecing glass 10/13th, the fee is $20. Kit will be $10. Fee should be paid no later than September meeting. In the September newsletter, she will have a list of the materials needed for those who want to use their own supplies in the workshop.

There was a short show and tell of the projects completed or started at the Susan Edmundson Workshop.

Aby Dolinger showed samples of the squares needed for the next Raffle Quilt she will be chairing for 2019. The September meeting will include demo of techniques for the construction of the blocks needed for the raffle quilt. Kits will be passed out for those interested in helping with constructing them. Everyone was encouraged to take some of the kits and return them as soon as possible. The Guild expressed their appreciation to Aby for accepting this chair.

NICU Quilt chair advised quilts will be delivered to NICU Tuesday, 8/21 at 9:00. She advised until today's meeting, she had only 11 quilts on hand. She has enough quilts for this delivery, but please give these a priority for next month. Also, she has those free fabrics donated to the guild that can be used for NICU quilts-she has already washed them. In we do not use these fabrics, the guild may not receive any more fabrics from that source. If you bring In-Memorial quilts to the meeting, please let Mary Lou know how many you turn in. Be sure to include 1 point on your annual sheet for each In-Memorial quilt turned in. She will have a pattern for the NICU Christmas stockings at the next meeting that we need to turn in by November meeting.

Sonia Blue reported 55 persons in attendance, guests were introduced and welcomed. There are two new members. Door prizes were drawn and presented to the winners. The door prizes included several very nice specialty rulers that were donated by vendors at the Raleigh Sewing Expo.

The VA Quilt Chair, Cindy Clifton reported she has 34 quilts on hand. She also has backing fabric that was donated for those interested, but has not washed them. We will need approximately 90 quilts for the delivery in February, 2019.

The Sunshine Chair reported no-one in hospital known, but she has remembered several who are experiencing medical problems or need special encouragement.

Irene Grimes gave information on the next challenge in September. Predominate colors will be orange or dark lavender, which are the Kona colors, or a combination of both. The item produced can be any project of your choice. The following challenge will be the VA quilt that will be donated to the VA for delivery in 2019. This may contain only 1 patriotic quilt color or none of the VA colors. These may be VA or anything Americana.

The block of the month winner for the 11 blocks was announced. There was also a winner announced for the traveling scissors gift. The next Block of the Month is a cat, which is made of squares. Chair advised group to sew in columns instead of rows, for easier construction.

FQ's winner was announced. The theme for September will be either sports or school related.

Newsletter items are due immediately as our chair will be out of town for vacation.

Irene Grimes needs old T-shirts for a project she is working on. Nancy Moore needs old Christmas Cards for her project. Please bring them to our next meeting.

After a very busy Show & Tell time, Nancy Moore adjourned the meeting at 4:02 PM

Respectfully submitted,

Ann Jackson, Secretary
